6. Amendment of EOI

If it becomes necessary to revise any part of this EoI or if additional data are necessary for an exact interpretation of provisions of this EoI prior to the due date for receipt of proposals, notification will be sent to the contenders on email. The AUTHORITY reserves the right to extend the due date for accepting bids to accommodate such interpretations or additional data requirements.

7. Cost of Proposal

The EOI proposer shall be responsible for all the costs associated with the preparation and submission of their proposals and their participation in the selection process including subsequent negotiations, visits to the project site, etc. The AUTHORITY will not be responsible or in any way be liable for such costs, regardless of the conduct or outcome of the selection process.

8. Discussion Format

The AUTHORITY reserves the right to conduct discussions, either oral or written, with those proposers determined by the AUTHORITY to have submitted reasonably viable proposals for being selected for award of work. The AUTHORITY also reserves the right to issue clarifications to resolve minor issues in the EOI and to call for additional information, if required at any stage, for evaluation purposes.

9. Period of Contract

The term of the contract of engagement/appointment as consultant is for a period of Nine months from the award of work for submitting DPR and required documents/informations on mutually agreed terms and this period shall commence from the date of signing of the agreement. However, further services of the Consultant may be obtained by the AUTHORITY during the implementation phase of the project as and when required on mutually agreed terms and conditions. The contract can be terminated by either party with a notice period of 30 days (One month). However, if the AUTHORITY is of the view that any act of fraudulence or malfeasance has been committed by the proposer selected as the Consultant and it is in the public interest to abrogate the contract, then the AUTHORITY has the right to reduce the above notice period to 15 days (fifteen days) within which the Consultant has to wind up its operations and hand over all relevant documents, data, etc. to the AUTHORITY.

The Nine month period of contract may be extended for a further period of three months without penalty on request of the consultant for sufficient and reasonable reasons acceptable to the AUTHORITY. Any extension beyond this period shall attract penal provision as mentioned in para - 16.12 below.
